Joe Bonamassa is an American blues rock guitarist and singer.

Friday April 20, 2012 Joe Bonamassa brought the blues to The Reno Events Center in downtown Reno. His awesome guitar leads were on spot and just amazing. The fans were rockin' the entire show.

The set lasted nearly two hours and went something like this. (taken from the set list on stage)

"Slow Train", "Last Kiss", "Midnight Blues", "Dust Bowl", "Who's Been Talking", "Sloe Gin", "John Henry", "Lonesome Road Blues", "Song Of Yesterday", "Steal Your Heart Away", "Blues Deluxe", "Young Mans Blues" and two encore songs, "Driving Towards The Day Light" and "Just Got Paid".

The show had a perfect mix of rock and blues, the sound and especially the lighting made this examiners job really enjoyable. You really have to go to a show to see what I mean. It's worth a road trip if need be or you can wait till he comes back to the Reno/Tahoe area.

Along with Bonamassa (lead guitar, vocals), were band mates, Carmine Rojas (bass), Rick Melick (keyboards) and Tal Bergman (drums).
